

THE 2017 LIONEL GELBER PRIZE

CALL for SUBMISSIONS

The Lionel Gelber Prize was founded in 1989 by Canadian diplomat Lionel Gelber. The prize is a literary award for the world's best non-fiction book in English on foreign affairs that seeks to deepen public debate on significant international issues. A prize of $15,000 is awarded to the winner. The award is presented annually by The Lionel Gelber Foundation, in partnership with Foreign Policy Magazine and the Munk School of Global Affairs at the University of Toronto.

To be eligible for the 2017 Lionel Gelber Prize, books must be published between 1 January 2016 and 31 December 2016. The deadline for submissions is 31 October 2016. Manuscripts to be published between 31 October and 31 December 2016 may be submitted in galley form. A $50 per entry handling fee is required. Please make all cheques payable to the University of Toronto.

Complete rules of eligibility are available on our website at www.munkschool.utoronto.ca/gelber.

This year's Lionel Gelber Prize winner is Scott Shane, for his book Objective Troy: A Terrorist, a President, and the Rise of the Drone published by Tim Duggan Books.
